last week at a meeting of the Eastern Shore Quota Club.

--Edward C. Merrill, Jr. has accepted an invitation by the International Association of Community Educators to serve on its Board of Directors.

--Raymond Trybus and Michael Karchmer were invited to the Deafness Research and Training Center at New York University to meet with staff members regarding activities of the Annual Survey of Hearing Impaired Children and Youth.
During their visit on October 20, they also lectured to the graduate students and staff of the Center on recent findings in the achievement of deaf children.

--Larry Berke presented a paper and discussion on "Signs for Sexual Behavior" at a two day workshop held by the Legal Training Program for Interpreters for the Deaf at Wayne State University.

FALL PLAY OPENS FRIDAY EVENING

"Laurent Clerc: A Profile," the fall drama production will open Friday, October 29, in the Auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Performances will also be given on Saturday evening at 7:30 p.m. and on November 5 and 6 at 8 p.m.

Written by Gil Eastman, the play dramatizes the life of Clerc who was the first deaf teacher of the deaf in the United States and who helped found the American School for the Deaf.

The box office opens daily at 2 p.m.
Tickets are $3 for general admission and $2 for students and children.
